Matters as they happen in my life -- Or -- Tales from PsiberRealm.

I have learned a few truths through all this. You are guilty till proven innocent but your still guilty. If the story sounds good enough, you can get away with just about anything. If the story isn't sensational enough or if there's not gross injury it doesn't matter, like there's strata for crimes, only the biggest or sensational ones are worth solving. Nobody ever want's to do their job or the paperwork. The government will break their own laws while you have to obey them. Don't trust anyone... If you don't want me in your society march me on the trail of tears and put me where you won't bother me.

Entry for December 31, 2006

Looking forward to a new year and cleaning up the remnants from the past year. My foot is still swollen but I can walk on it almost. still in a lot of pain. Haven't seen J.B (the mother) or the children in the past day or so.

Entry for December 24, 2006

I broke my toe today again. My foot is swelling up pretty good.

Entry for December 23, 2006

My mother came down for Christmas to visit. She witnessed the children home by themselves too.

Entry for December 22, 2006

J.B (the mother) is finally home for once in like 7 days. I know J.B has been home but I don't know about D.B. Since I can't take photo's inside their house I can't prove a thing there other then I have seen him.

Entry for December 20, 2006

Asked the mother-in-law to get me an appointment with Mayor Wilder and Chief of Police Rodney Monroe. Going to try and give the city a chance to redeem themselves before I have to get this in the News and wreck my family more. I just want this crap to end. J.B (the mother) I believe is still leaving J.B and/ or D.B by themselves. I haven't seen her in days and the dog has been in and out and the lights go on and off at weird times. I have seen J.B there so I know he's there. I also haven't seen P.? over there or at her house. But I can't call the police they won't do anything. Where are my equal rights. I am going to try and get J.B (the mother) and P.? for libel and slander, invasion of privacy, emotional distress, fraud, deceit and civil conspiracy as well as child neglect, contributing to the delinquency of a minor and ?. I am seeking compensation from the city for violating my civil and constitutional rights. THEY WILL FIX THIS. What has she told them, that I'm a sex predator looking at her little boy she cares so much about but leaves home by himself, if I can prove that one that would be a big NO-NO.

Entry for December 17, 2006

Was given instructions by the landlord to tell J.B (the mother) to comply with her lease or to leave, have to give her a 30 day notice. Here comes more trouble hope channel 12 calls tomorrow. Strange J.B (the mother) hasn't been around for two days now. Wonder who is taking care of the dog? Or if she left her children in P.?'s care? The landlord can tell her to do it himself.

Entry for December 16, 2006

The children are back in the church lot playing ball this time the police were called and they told the children to continue to play and left.< see video > Strange I thought the church was private property. The mother-in-law was driving by and stopped to talk to them still they left

Entry for December 15, 2006

Went to channel 12 news today but have to wait till their editor gets a hold of me. The gang were in the church lot today. < see video > Plumber came today got mostly new plumbing got a problem with the bathroom. Might need to replace the bathroom wall again

Entry for December 14, 2006

Had a very long talk with the landlord. Seems J.B (the mother) has told him lies also. He has told me to continue our agreement and watch his properties for him. I asked him to give me the paper that says what we agreed on, he reluctantly agreed they were in his possession. I will get Pastor to write me out a letter stating that I have a right to do surveillance of his property for him, that way I'm covered.

Entry for December 13, 2006

Went down to the church and spoke with the Pastor about what I had seen, and filled him in on the situation seems they were having troubles with vandals. Was asked to continue watching the church for them. So a crime has been committed again and I was not allowed to do anything about it. I have been waiting for a phone call or an email from Officer Church who ordered me to stop photographing, haven't heard from him since the other day.. Strange way of helping me...

Entry for December 12, 2006

Was told by P.? today when I looked out that "I am watching my son creep go back inside, or we'll call the cops on you again." She was in J.B's (the mother) yard, do I need this everyday now. I can't leave my house or do anything because they'll call the police or harass me into a tit-for-tat. Well I'm not done yet. They can continue to do whatever they want. I will do what I must to get it to stop. Asked the mother-in-law to go to the church and find out whom we need to talk to about their oil tanks and the children that are allowed to play and beat and climb all over them and vandalize the church's property. So pretty much I have no first amendment rights .

Entry for December 10, 2006

Was putting the finishing touches on the fence and J.B (the mother) went off again, seems she can't stand that I am still here. Had a friendly chat with Officer Church today about the law of filming crime in your neighborhood. Seems some people "freak out" when you videotape them doing something illegal. I was out today the first time in a week and decided to get some footage of the vehicle for the trial. Well both J.B (the mother) and P.? were home and J.B and J.? were down at the church doing god knows what no one was watching them. The wife and I were videotaping the car and taking photos we looked down at the church saw what was going on she took a few photos and decide "screw it" their now breaking the law with the parents consent. So we came in. A short while later I wasn't timing it there was a police officer at the gate. I went out to meet him and he told me I was "freaking the neighbors out" by photographing and videotaping their children in their yard. I admitted to videotaping them and photographing them but not in their yard, they are never in their yard, after that I informed him of the whole deal above, bringing him up to date. I also informed him I was a press photographer. He asked me to stop my surveillance I said I would if they stop breaking the law, he then ordered me to stop my surveillance all together. Because J.B (the mother) said so. Seems it's illegal to videotape or photograph someone committing a crime or to get evidence for your court date. So just wanting it to end isn't going to work. I have just uploaded the video and photos of today only 3 photos of them are there and no video. So again what did I do wrong. NOTHING. Nice pictures of them walking on the oil tanks in the church yard. < see Photos 1 and 2 and Video >

<http://www.krages.com/ThePhotographersRight.pdf>
<http://rcfp.org/photoguide/intro.html>

If the subject of the photograph has no reasonable expectation of privacy, then no invasion of privacy is possible. Photographs taken in public places generally are not actionable. Photos of crimes, arrests and accidents usually are considered newsworthy and immune from privacy claims.

http://www.usatoday.com/tech/columnist/andrewkantor/2006-08-11-photography-rights_x.htm

And if you are doing it with the property owners permission it is legal so the officer was wrong. So therefore my first amendment right was violated to help J.B (the mother) override the landlord on this.

Entry for December 08, 2006

Got a letter from Social Services thanking me for my concern and they took care of the problem that is still going on. hum. No change here just the same.

Entry for December 01, 2006

Received a phone call from my dad, my uncle passed away

Entry for November 30, 2006

J.B is at it again, < see the video. >

Entry for November 28, 2006

J.B's (the mother) dog and my dog got into it again while working on the fence. So did my wife and I to break it up. I got attacked again by her dog, got the scares to prove it. Sorry no video.

Entry for November 27, 2006

Had a long talk with the C.P.S. worker assigned to the case. Hopefully this will turn out good, and we get justice and help for J.B and D.B. I just want it to end. Got the delivery from Lowes and started putting up the privacy fence between J.B (the mother) and us.

Entry for November 26/27, 2006

Had one of the worst attacks I have had in a long while, 15 years. At this rate I'll be back in the hospital or worse. Still no sign of C.P.S. and no word from the detective working the case. My son has been a real trooper through all this I didn't realize he was standing on the step behind me when I was filming them on 2006-11-24, so is that taunting him. He is very upset and hurt by all this. When someone is your best friend and then becomes your worse enemy at the age of 9, it's rough. And then on top of it he was told by the C.P.S. that his father is no good and needs to be arrested. Tell me where his rights are also. So for him I will continue the fight.

Entry for November 26, 2006

Another more of the same. J.? was in the yard and the gang was around the yard. I am tired of ordering these children out of my yard. Made a call to the police was told "Just tell them to get out of your yard." Um I thought that "No Trespassing" meant DON'T COME IN MY YARD. This time I noticed there was someone at J.?'s house watching, so they are aware that these children are trespassing and allowed to do anything they want. Where are my rights. I am beyond PISSED. If this keeps up I don't know what I'll do. Seems there is nothing I can do legally, DON'T want to do anything illegal, but it's coming to that.

Entry for November 24, 2006

More of the same as usual J.B (the mother) is no where to be seen ask the detective working the case he was there today, she wasn't. J.B and J.? were at it again. < see video. > Haven't seen the C.P.S. yet, even though these children are now home by themselves all night and day.

Entry for November 22, 2006

Am going to go to C.P.S. and file a report about the incidents on the 2006-11-10/12 and on 2006-11-18. Lets see where this will go..

Entry for November 19, 2006

I realized today I have been unfair to my son during all this, he has a voice I'm going to include his side of the story here too. I might interview some others too. The mother-in-law went out and bought an airsoft pistol from Wal-mart, she was carded, and asked who the bb gun was for, if it was it for a child. < see packing cardboard warning. >

Entry for November 18, 2006

Video of today. Again where are the adults and does the church allow these kids to play there? I might go ask.

Entry for November 15, 2006

The mother-in-law found out today the detective working the case never fully dropped the charges so she is proceeding with her charges and I will be pressing additional charges against J.B and if I can I might also press charges against P.?, J.?, and J.B (the mother) .

Entry for November 10/12, 2006

The mother-in-law stupidly decide not to press charges against J.B, for what reason I'll never figure out. So continuing the story. For 3 days now J.B has been in my yard and at night J.B and J.? have decided to play right in front of my house and all without any adults present... It took P.? 3-5 minutes to track them down the other night and I expect that the darling duo will be up to no good in front of my house again. < see the video >. She has no idea where her child or J.B's (the mother) are at anytime. Isn't that contributing to the delinquency of a minor or minors as the case may be. And I'll have it all on video so I can show everyone what I have to deal with on a daily basis.

Entry for October 03, 2006

Called the FBI about my records being stolen and the Comcast bill being changed, told them my suspicions and asked them what to do.

Entry for October 02, 2006

Child Protective Services along with an armed Police officer were here to bust me for producing child porn, all "unofficially" < meaning without warrant >, the allegations that were being investigated were sexual exploitation of a child < their wording >. A false allegation, which is illegal according to the magistrate, but... Because of the fact that I'm a photographer who has an adult glamour website and the fact that I had a camera set up in the shower so I or my wife could monitor myself, due to my condition I pass out in the shower and have seizure like fits; and my child who loved to jump into the tub like a swimming pool or like he was superman. Now all of these things were taken down almost a year ago and are not illegal. My website has only been fully operational since 060814 of this year, I purchased Astralyngyser.com for my wife 060214 of this year to restructure my company and get it back up and running again; now that my son is old enough to not go where he's told. Before that it only existed in it's entirety on the hard drive in my computer, at the time of the incident. And most of their information was also about a year old, so... Or wrong all together. This was a deliberate attempt to get back at me due to the fact of the above mentioned crimes that were committed by the persons at 23 chuckatuck ave. Before we could even get a lawyer, she had retaliated. I inappropriately placed a webcam in my house to monitor my child. I was told to keep my "porno" away from him. I told them "I did you put it right in his face", then told me to deal with it. Well up till that point my son didn't know that I did "porno", and neither did my father so I was hiding it very poorly. And it was a real nice conversation I had to have with my son to explain some of what they were talking about. And if it was such a crime why wasn't it reported when I had the camera up, why all of the sudden is it a big deal? Why? Retaliation that's why.

To go on record because I never seem to be allowed to, I never invited the CPS nor the police officer into my house. I was not told what they wanted, "we'll tell you after we get into your house" they kept saying. They reached into my yard to unhook my gate and my dog went off. I came outside and they asked "are you glen Sutphin", I said "yes I am can I help you." "we'll tell you after we get into your house" I said "I'm standing right here." "you don't need to make my dog bite you we already had one report this week about dogs, can't you read the sign it says beware of dog for a reason, let me get my dog secure." I manhandled my dog into the house meaning I had to physically pick her up because she would not go. I came back out and asked again, "what is this about you want me I'm not going anywhere." "we'll tell you after we get into your house", somewhere during all this the CPS shook my hand is that my acceptance to allow them access to my home. They officially didn't start the interrogation till after they were in my house and the officer started to look around, which I officially told him to stop doing. < see interrogation tape transcript if I can get it. > I have to go downtown to court to file a petition to find out who did it.

But since I wasn't arrested or charged there's nothing I can do.. Watch what I can do... If I had of been placed under arrest I would have been found not guilty and had to live the rest of my life with the word sex offender after my name. I can do without that. Instead I'll have A.P.P. after it, Accredited Press Photographer. They came specifically for me, well they'll have to deal with me then.

In the commonwealth we have crime watchers, which means "Watch Crime in your neighborhood". They say to report crime when you see it, well when you do be ready for the results. If you witness a crime, it is your civic duty to report the crime to the police. If a crime happens in the public eye meaning in public and you don't report it isn't that a crime? If you do something in the privacy of your own home and someone see it and reports it is that a crime? If you do something that someone who is in your home sees and makes up a story to make it a crime is that a crime? If someone is in your house sees something in your house and tells someone else about it to tell the police and CPS and it is a made up story then is it a crime?

J.B (the mother) and I have some history. We haven't gotten along since the first time her dog attacked me. And if it was P.? then this woman to my knowledge has never been in my house so is she psychic or did J.B (the mother) tell her? Also if either of these women's ssn# last four digits are 2543 then what's it doing on my Comcast bill? P.? yelled down the street to me "thanks for calling the cops creep." um? I didn't. She and J.B (the mother) also are drinking buddies. She's now the person in charge of watching J.B supposedly.

Some of the other things J.B's (the mother) done wrong are, firstly got her dog without permission breaking the lease. Let her pit bull type dog run free for years? See video one and two. Also see one day in July 060725. She's driving with Maryland tags for almost 4 years now. < see citizens' guide to city services > and DMV response from VA and MD, See photo of her tag, recently. hum... She's had a dog for 3+ years and never got it fixed? < See photos of first litter of puppies. 030227 > < see next litter of puppies. 060308 > Notice the time difference. Have been told by her "your opinion doesn't matter in your own yard, I'll do what I want." Has abused her dog's and children; has beaten Jacob on more then one occasion in front of me, calls him "nigger" and "slave", as well as her other son and other choice words that can be heard all over the block. Has ordered me to give her my gun so she can go and kill someone then she'd give it back to me so it couldn't be traced to her? This incident was the last time I have spoken with this woman and ordered her to stay out of my yard and keep her kids and friends out of my yard. Has had my son for 8 hours without my permission resulting in me calling the police and being told don't worry about it it was a misunderstanding? Was it a misunderstanding that she threatened to get even with me after they left? Was it a misunderstanding that the Police were in my house with the CPS over nothing? How many misunderstandings can happen? Yes this woman is very trust worthy. All I have done was try to report crimes. Are all these things a crime in Richmond City, must not be? < also see City of Richmond Citizens' Emergency Preparedness Guide page 9 on what to do to report a crime. > But you follow their rules and are told "Don't be petty." or "It's just a misunderstanding." Or am I just special.

During all this I was in the process of buying the house, which I have placed on hold. I was also trying to buy Julie's house from the landlord to stop the crap and she found out about it. Now I'll be happy to be able to get this one.

These amendments were violated I feel. I had to violate my fifth amendment right to protect myself during the interrogation with the CPS and Police officer.

Amendment I

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press, or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

Amendment IV.

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

I have to constantly violate this one to defend myself in the court of my yard.

Amendment V.

No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a Grand Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the Militia, when in actual service in time of War or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb, nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation.

Amendment VI.

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed; which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense.

Amendment XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Or is this another I don't know what I'm talking about deals again. Or is the constitution a big work of fiction that we pretend to still have. < see constitution >

All this has put a lot of undue stress on my family as well as myself. It has aggravated my condition back to the point I was in 16 years ago. < see my head > I have been told by the medical community that I was faking it for 16 years then they find this and it's another oops. My son who is a normally good child now wants to be bad and start lying and doing bad things so he can get to be normal. And when you brake the trust a child has in his parent that he looks up too; then tell the parent they have no right to know what you told that child, isn't it a parents right to know about their child. He has an a/b average in school and is being considered for the gifted and talented class. So I want to know where this all helped him? He says the person who made up the lies should be punished as well and as harshly as a person who would do that to a child. "They hurt me more then when Steve Irwin died daddy" he said. "They need to be spanked."

The mother-in-law and I went to the magistrates office to see about getting a restraining order against J.B (the mother), was told "people can't make up false allegations against someone it's illegal.", "Put up a no trespassing sign to keep people out." I have 6 signs on my fence and house, what's the magic number. My house looks ridiculous. These people still trespass and continue to trespass in my yard . We were given a piece of paper with a phone number on it and instructed to go pay a lawyer and go in debt to stop her from getting even. But isn't there is an emergency protective order they can grant but didn't, wasn't sensational enough.

Both incidents the mother-in-law reported. But who get's to play with the police, you guessed it, me.

Entry for September 30, 2006

In the morning when we got up there was a note on our fence between J.B's (the mother) and our house. < see stupid note >. Where only J.B (the mother) and us have access. That morning I also went and bought a fence and put it up to keep her kid's out of my yard so they wouldn't play basketball in my yard. < see receipt > This pissed her off to no end. The landlord told me to put a string up there to stop them from coming in.. So I strung up a fence. The landlord also told me there was nothing he could do, strange he owns the property, more like he didn't want to do anything. < see below for more on him > This has gone on between us for 4 years and in good faith I have gone to the landlord every time and been told nothing I can do. Found out my ssn# on my comcast bill was changed, Is this what uncle sam warned about now I really have to call the FBI .

A few words about my landlord who could have put an end to this a long time ago, but didn't. For 8 years in good faith I have tried to make this slum he called a house a home for my family, begging him to fix stuff and finally doing it myself because I got fed up with the constant "you don't know what you are talking about." Or the "I don't have the money" or "it was brand new when you moved in". The wiring is substandard in my home, and inadequate for today's home. It took me 6+ years to get a new front door, the only reason he gave in was so he could sell me the slum. My house is a slum but since it's all I can afford I'll live with it. As I said I have been doing a lot of the fix-up it needs. So I won't move because I have 8 years invested in it and he won't pay me for all the work I've put into it myself. I have stopped talking to him and now only deal with him through the mother-in-law. He has disrespected me one too many times, and if it keeps up I'll have him in court as well. It's funny that I took 5 years of Vo-Tech school for Residential wiring, Masonry, Plumbing, and Carpentry, plus I was a Surveyor and Draftsman but I have no clue as to what I'm talking about, but seem to be right.. hum.. I also am a veteran of the U.S. Army with an honorable so I was told discharge < see discharge papers > with no criminal record. Was trained to handle an AR-15 weapon, pistol and grenades and have a permit to carry concealed but can't be responsible enough to shoot someone firing at me, um.. As a press photographer I have certain ETHICS FOR THE PRESS PHOTOGRAPHER I have to adhere to.

200609300788- J.B's (the mother) pit bull pups were running loose again and attacking other animals. The mother-in-law called the police again. The police officer who showed up was scared of them. < see the photos > < also see dog abuse > They took the two pups away that night and came back to get the mother dog the next day.. But somehow she got her mother dog back. And it is running loose again. Isn't there a vicious dog law and leash law in this state.

Entry for September 29, 2006

200609290797- J.B, D.B of 23 Chuckatuck Ave., J.? of 10 Chuckatuck Ave. and a supposed 19 year old African-American gangster wannabe? from down the street were firing an airsoft bb gun at the mother-in-law and the dog. She came in and called the police. There are bb marks and a soccer ball print on the side of the vehicle. < See the photos. > These children also lied to the officers at least twice while the officers were there. When asked where the gun was they replied "in the attic". When the officer asked them to go get it they walked into their kitchen, um? Then when asked who's house it was they replied not theirs, the officers asked where do you live they said here, but it's their mothers house. After the officers left one of their dogs was loose in the front yard and went after the officer. I witnessed the children shooting at my dog but not the vehicle, but I'm not a witness to the incident. Now when the law believes a lying unsupervised group of children over an adult there's something seriously wrong in this country. All this occurred when the mother wasn't home.

J.B had previously threatened my son and I, saying "We're a gang and we're going to kill your dog, your family and you. you fat sissy. you wait. We're going to beat you till your dead." upon hearing this I stepped outside and was told "there's nothing you can do about it." I told him to "get out of my yard." "We're not in your yard." He left. This all took place in my front yard, but still nothing I can do.

The mother-in-law pressed charges against J.B. We were at first told that we couldn't press charges against J.B. The officer said there was nothing we could do, I told him he was wrong. But see this below. You have to be 18 years old or older or be with an adult to use an airsoft bb gun, it is considered a weapon. They have a orange tip on them to say they are a toy, but are also considered a weapon. I had to show my ID at Wal-mart to buy my airsoft bb guns, and every time I buy the bb's for it.

Still rebuilding. Not much been going on except the rebuilding of my yard. Lowes finally delivered all the stuff we ordered 4 days ago.. I'll be posting the photos soon. Other then working in the hot sun and getting extremely sick the past week or so, not much has happened.

Entry for July 23, 2005

Tooth got pulled. Had a black out because it was too hot in the dentist office. I passed out and came to two minutes later and asked " what did I take a vacation?" They had warnings. I also bit my tongue during the blackout almost all the way through.

Entry for July 20, 2005

Need to get a tooth pulled, play ring around the rosy. Why when you go down to the dentist on an emergency visit for a tooth that erupted do you get sent home and told to take an aspirin. Or is it just my lot in life to be screwed no matter what the case. I got the run around today from not one not two but three different doctors and all I wanted was a tooth pulled. Pulling teeth is not as easy as it once was. Hell for me I need an act of congress to get a piece of paper to say it's ok to remove an infected tooth. Only to be sent home with a try again tomorrow...Okay. Waiting in pain for tomorrow. But today was tomorrow yesterday, and I'm still in pain...Not to mention the heat..

Entry for July 19, 2005

I posted the rebuild photos today. It's coming along so slow. I hate the heat and it hates me. Same for life..

Entry for July 14, 2005

Rebuilding again...Not much to say. Have begun to rebuild the deck and fix the 21 club. The heat is really getting to me.. I've had 3 major blackout attacks in the past 8 days.. I'll post more photos of the rebuild soon.

This letter is to whom ever reads it,
I want to know why time and time again my civil rights are violated and I am told I have to obey the law. The law is supposed to treat all equally, show no favor and protects everyone. But someone forgot to tell the law that I am suppose to be treated the same as everyone else.

This letter servers as a public notice, because the inadequate police report doesn't say anything about these events.

An example, of which there are many; on July 2, 2005 at around 11:22 at night a car came crashing into my yard, traveling at a high rate of speed. The car then crashed into my fence, deck and trailer; which was in storage beside my house. I was in the living room looking out the side window when the car crashed. Everything on the deck went flying, including my BBQ grill; with propane bottle attached, which came within a foot of coming in the window. Needless to say, good thing my wife and I didn't go outside 5 minutes sooner like we had planned.

I told my wife who was washing dishes at this time in the kitchen to stay put, I then ran out to the trailer to see if the car was imbedded in the trailer and to get my pistol which I keep in the closet of the trailer. I then come back into my house and go out the front door to find out what was going on. I see a woman bleeding and glassy eyed, about 30ish, blonde hair, with 2 tattoos on her back staggering around the front yard. She is pleading with me to not call the police and saying she's sorry her boyfriend made her do it. She then tries to get back in the car and leave. She backs the car up 3 feet before

I step into the door of the car and order her out of the vehicle and order her to the ground at gun point and tell her not to move.

About now an African-American male about 30's bleeding and looking like he had been drug down the road staggers up. The female and he exchange a verbal cussing match, and the female is distracted by a young white male about 15 who has come running up the street. She yells at him to get back into the car. Then a black or dark blue jeep Cherokee type vehicle pulls up to the stop sign on Bartee Ave. The female runs for the jeep, as an African-American male leans out the passenger side window with a rifle. At this moment I have my 9 mm pistol trained on the male with the rifle. I don't have time to get a license plate number because I'm watching the man with the rifle.

I have a clean shot at his chest. My sights are on him, he fires the first round into the air. I slowly squeeze the trigger back locking it ready. He fires another round lower. Then sees me with a pistol just standing there wondering if I have a legal right to shoot him. He yells at the driver to get away "the guys got a gun", they speed off. The whole time I have him in my sights. I then turn my attention to the African-American male still in my yard. From what he told me he was car jacked by a hooker he picked up. And he looked like he had been drug down the street for a ways. I went inside to call 911 again and got disconnected. I then reloaded my 9 mm with my 35 round clip in case the people came back, as they sometimes do, plus I was getting outnumbered. 10-15 minutes later after the first call to 911 the first officer arrived. I was told 3 minutes and that there was only one call to 911 but we won't argue.

He immediately tells me to disarm. In the heat of the crisis I didn't put my piece away; I was afraid the people would come back. I set my 9 mm down and showed the officer my permit to carry and then left to take it inside.

The next few officers that arrive are in bullet proof vests and tactical gear. And I think the SWAT team even showed up. These officers are the ones I had problems with. One of the officers asks me "why did you let them get away?" I told him "I'm not allowed to use lethal force to protect my property." Another officer is standing by me when a vehicle like the one that sped away comes back down the road.

The vehicle stops and backs up Chuckatuck onto Green Acres and they fire a shot in the air and drive off. I look at the police officer and say "that looks like the vehicle", he says "where?" I say "the one that is backing up." He says "where?" I say "useless." I give all my information to the first police officer at my house and I get a copy of the report back from that night and there is one sentence about what happened that night and it doesn't even tell anything that went on. The sentence is and I quote "An unknown female drove the owner's vehicle into the fence of 101 Chuckatuck Ave." See local case number 050702-1083. I have attached a copy of the police paperwork. Also attached is a map of what I draw up of that night. and photos.

I am told to pretty much next time anything happens in my front yard to go hide and call 911 and hope the people go away, and then give a detailed report of what happened. I took an oath to defend this country from invaders and terrorists both domestic and foreign when I joined the army. I am now told to be a good citizen and obey the law that almost got me killed. I am told I shouldn't teach my son hatred, to obey the law. Not to worry the terrorists can't harm you in your own house.

Well I have something to say about that. They can do what ever they want in your house because the law gives them more rights then you in your own house. America is at war the news says every night, well war came to my house and my hands were tied. Next time I don't know if I can obey a law that tells me I can only return fire if my life is in danger. If I have to go into my front yard with my pistol in my hand my life is in danger. If I am fired upon again I shouldn't have to wonder if my life is in danger, if there is a gun pointed in my direction firing I will return fire. I don't go into my front yard to target practice with my pistol, it's illegal to fire a pistol or rifle in your front yard in the city, but if you're in a car committing a crime it's okay...

I have other instance where I have had to shut up and sit there and take the abuse. This is not the first time someone has come into my yard with a car; Almost running my son over. This is not the first time I have had someone fire a weapon at me in my own yard. This is not the first time I have called 911 because there was a crime committed and been treated like dirt. I called 911 to report that my neighbors house was being broke into. An hour and a half later a policeman comes up and asks where the robber was. Um. I told him the guy ran away when I told the guy I had a gun.

I've called animal control on a vicious dog that was running lose and trying to bite everyone. The dog on two occasions tried to bite my son and me in my own back yard. And I was told I'm not allowed to shoot a vicious animal. They let it run lose for 2 weeks before they decided to catch it, After I threatened them with a lawsuit for not doing their job.

The Mexicans fire off firecrackers nightly some times for hours no police will do anything about it. My next door neighbor lights one fountain off for the fourth of July and the police come and tell her their going to fine her it's illegal to have fireworks. And as far as Mexicans, how many of them can legally live in a house? There are three two bedroom house in our block with 15 + Mexicans in each house. And why are they allowed to play their music as loud as they want at all hours of the night and no police will do anything about it but we have a Halloween party once a year and they police show up every year to tell us to turn it down.

I want to know where does this all end. I am being screwed by the insurance company on the matter on the 2nd and I am fed up with it. I am fed up with the inequality that I have been getting because I am Native American. I am not American Indian I am a white Native born American. I am not a Caucasian because I was not born in Caucasia or the caucus mountains in Russia. I was born in Annapolis, MD. I am a native born American. I have to prove to the DMV that I was born and raised in America which I refuse to do.

They have treated me with equally crap. They saw fit to suspend my license with out telling me and I drove for a year on it suspended. I then surrender my license after I find out from my insurance company when they dropped me. And a year after I surrender my license they suspend it again and tell me I owe them $500.00 in fines. I ask what for, I gave back my license. They demand I pay them and prove I'm a U.S. citizen.

I tell them I have a permit to carry a concealed weapon which I had to prove I was a U.S. citizen to get. They tell me it's not proof. I'm tired of proving I live here I served in the army and have an honorable discharge. I have a condition that has stopped me from working and has disabled me for life. I'm fighting to get SSI, because my workman's compensation settlement; which was to take care of me for life runs out in 2007, I got screwed again.

I'm fed up with it. If I am treated like a criminal one more time in my own home I think I'll be a criminal next time. I am tired of doing the right thing and getting spit on in my own home. My son is afraid the terrorists are going to walk right up and kill him in his own yard. And he's right they will. So how am I to calm his fears when an officer of the law tells him he just has to live by a law that will get you killed?

I want to know what to do? I am tired and fed up with society as it is. And I'm not the only one. I would really like an answer. If I were an African-American male this would be all over the news another African-American male being mistreated. Well sorry I'm that other minority the Native American White male and I demand my rights. Equal and fair, no more no less.

What am I to tell my child? He asks me every night if the "bad guys are going to kill mommy and daddy while he's asleep?" or if daddy is going to be alive to give him a hug in the morning? What am I to tell him, it can't happen here, it already has and I'm not allowed to protect him? 9/11 happened, London happened, My Street happened and we are still saying it can't happen again. Well wake up it is happening all around us, what are we to do? I leave it at that.

I have spoken with the Chief of Police Rodney Monroe and told him I was going to stop calling the police, they seem to do nothing to help me so why bother. I also told him that the next time something happened and the city did nothing I was going to go off and I don't care about the outcome. If I have to go out with my weapon drawn, I feel my life is in danger. I was trained to use a weapon in the army have an expert shot 36/38 out of 40 shots, but am told I can't hit a target 35-50 feet away. The day that happens you can rest assured I will personally turn in my weapons, before I moved to New Jersey I turned in my 380 and my tec-9 to the gun shop I bought them from. Southern gun world on Midlothian. But i'm irresponsible....

Finally after 16 some odd years of doctors telling me every test we have done on you shows there's nothing wrong, Finally the last one that I had done showed something. It showed I have two clogged, constricted, blocked, genetically deformed , one a major, one a secondary arteries in my brain and head. And my only solution is to put up with the pain and the headache the best I can because there nothing we can do about it.. How's that for an answer. Well it's an answer just not one I want to hear about.
